THIS AGREEMENT is by and between Gold Standard Automotive Network, ("GSAN") Utah corporation, and _____, a _____ corporation with their principal offices located at _____ (individually and collectively with their affiliated entities, ("Dealer").

WHEREAS, the Dealer desires to perform the requirements set forth herein as well as follow the requirements of the Program;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the recitals, promises and mutual covenants herein contained, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, GSAN and the Dealer desires to offer one or more of GSAN's Products to its motor vehicle Purchasers ("Purchasers") and GSAN desires to appoint the Dealer as a sales representative for such Products, all in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. As used herein, "Product" means any of the Maintenance or Maintenance / Vehicle Service Contract, GAP, or other programs offered by GSAN to a Dealer. GSAN hereby authorizes the Dealer to offer and sell GSAN Products to Dealer's Purchasers within the States where filed and approved. The Dealer agrees each Product shall be sold only on an eligible vehicle as defined within the GSAN Product(s) Contract in accordance with GSAN rules, regulations, terms and pricing in effect at the time of sale. The Dealer agrees to report all sales and make payment on sold Products by the 15th of the following month. The Dealer agrees that prior to the sale of any vehicle being sold with a GSAN Product, that the vehicle has been inspected and that the Dealer has repaired or fixed any defects found or made repairs required and certifies that the vehicle is in good working mechanical condition, unless otherwise specified in this agreement.

1. The Dealer has no right to use the logo or trademarks of either the insurer or GSAN under this agreement without specific permission to do in writing. The Dealer may use approved GSAN brochures.
2. GSAN reserves the right to change Product coverage, rules, regulations, terms and pricing. The Dealer will be notified of these changes and shall promptly make the changes as required. The insurer may also make changes and the Dealer will be notified should such changes occur.
3. The Dealer shall not change, modify, alter or waive any terms on the Product agreement and have no authority to modify or waive any terms within the GSAN Product or make representations on coverage or benefits provided. Nor, may the dealer modify or change the contractual obligations of the insurance carrier. Should such change occur, or representations made result in a loss that is otherwise not covered, it will be the Dealers obligation to make repairs or pay for loss incurred, including any legal fees or court costs.
4. The Dealer shall remit to GSAN all funds due to the GSAN on each sale within fifteen days (15) days following the end of the month in which the Product was sold. Any additional monies that are otherwise owed by the Dealer shall be due immediately upon the Dealer's receipt of a billing for such from GSAN. Should a Dealer fail to remit funds within the required time frame, they may become liable for the payment of any or all claims, including legal fees, court costs or judgments rendered. It is understood that the insurer has the right, but may not elect to collect from the dealer any outstanding funds owed to GSAN.
5. The Dealer shall promptly refund to the Purchaser, all funds owed in the event of a cancelation, including compensation received by the Dealer. A cancelation fee may be made by GSAN as allowed by State law.

If the Dealer fails to properly remit funds to GSAN as required, then the Dealer shall be liable for all costs and expenses of GSAN resulting from the Dealer's failure to remit such funds. The Dealer agrees that failure of the Dealer to properly remit funds for any Contract issued by it shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.
10. The Dealer shall be responsible for any taxes imposed by law on the Dealer or transaction as a result of the sale of all or any part of the Program.
11. The Dealer further agrees that all funds received by the Dealer on the sale of GSAN Products shall be held in a fiduciary capacity and not intermingled with personal or other funds or used for personal or any other purpose whatsoever.
12. If any fees or any other amounts due to GSAN, or its agents or assigns, from the Dealer remain unpaid after thirty (30) days shall be deducted from any fees or other any amounts otherwise due to the Dealer. GSAN also reserves the right to offset any amounts due to the Dealer under this Agreement against any amounts due to the Dealer under this or any other agreements the Dealer.

15. That the Dealer shall bear all of its business expenses and marketing costs and shall not incur any expense or cost on behalf of the GSAN.
16. The Dealer agrees to keep GSAN's Confidential Information confidential. Confidential Information does not include information that was in the public domain at the time it was disclosed to the Dealer or rightfully known by the Dealer prior to disclosure by the GSAN. The Dealer agrees to use the Confidential Information only for the purposes of fulfilling its obligations under the Program. The Dealer further agrees not to disclose, disseminate, publish, transfer or otherwise make available Confidential Information to third parties
17. The Dealer and all persons employed by Dealer to perform any activities authorized by this Agreement shall procure and maintain in good standing all licenses, permits, and certifications required under all applicable state and federal laws with respect to such activities.

18. The Dealer shall not use for any purpose other than as required by this Agreement, disclosure to any other person or entity the names, personal information, and other information concerning the subject matter of the Products without first affording GSAN with a reasonable opportunity to confirm that such use or disclosure complies with any applicable federal or state privacy laws.

 - b. To arrange for the purchase of insurance covering the Company's obligation under any Program unless otherwise stated in the Contracts sold to Purchasers.
 - c. To furnish the Dealer with the form of the Contracts and other supplies approved by the Company necessary for the Dealer to implement the Program, all of which shall remain the property of the Company and shall be promptly returned to the Company by the Dealer in the event of the termination of this Agreement or upon demand of the Company.
 - d. To compute payment to the Dealer, if applicable, on all covered Contract claims at the customary retail labor rate for the time required. The Dealer understands that, in some cases, parts will be handled as outlined in the Product details.
 - e. For cancelations by the Purchaser, to refund to the Dealer (to enable the Dealer to return the funds to the Purchaser), the Company's portion due according to the terms agreed upon in the Purchaser's Contract under the applicable cancellation section, unless the cost is part of a finance agreement, in which case, the refund would be made to the Lender.
 - f. To inform the Dealer about the policies, procedures, risk management and marketing guidelines of the contractual liability insurer of the Company.
 - g. GSAN shall be solely responsible for administering and paying all benefits under the Products. The Dealer shall have no authority to adjudicate, settle, compromise, or pay any benefits under the Products. In the event a Customer attempts to make a claim under a Product directly with Dealer, the Dealer shall instruct the Customer to follow the claims reporting instructions set forth in the Product Form and shall provide all reasonable and necessary cooperation and assistance to the Customer.
21. This Agreement shall become effective as of the date specified in the Information Page. This Agreement may be terminated by either party by giving thirty (30) days' advance written notice to the other party. This Agreement may be terminated immediately for any of the following reasons: (a) the failure of the other party to cure any material breach of this Agreement committed by such party within thirty (30) days after written notice of the breach has been provided by the terminating party; (b) the filing of a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy petition involving the other party, or the appointment of a receiver, conservator, supervisors, or similar official concerning the other party; or (c) the assignment by the other party of all or substantially all of its assets for the benefit of its creditors. The termination of this Agreement
22. Shall not affect or diminish the obligations of the parties under this Agreement with respect to Products sold prior to the termination date.

In the event that the arbitrators are not able to agree on the choice of the umpire, the appointment shall be left to the President of the American Arbitration Association, or its successor. Venue for such arbitration shall be decided by the parties. If the parties cannot agree to where the arbitration will be conducted, then the arbitration panel will decide. The arbitration panel's award shall be in writing and shall set forth the findings and conclusions upon which it based the award. The prevailing party in any such arbitration shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the arbitration, as such is determined by the arbitration panel.

24. The Dealer shall at all times be considered an independent contractor, and nothing in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to create an employment, joint venture, or partnership relationship between GSAN and Dealer or between GSAN and any of Dealer's employees, agents, and sub-contractors.
25. The failure by either party to exercise or enforce any of its rights or remedies under this Agreement shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment to any extent of such party's right to assert or rely upon any such provision, right, or remedy.
26. Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the respective lawful successors and assigns of the parties. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any party other than the parties hereto or their respective lawful successors and assigns any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.
27. Neither this Agreement, nor any of the authority, rights, duties, obligations, liabilities afforded or created by this Agreement may be assigned or delegated by Dealer to any other person without a prior written consent of GSAN.
28. This written Agreement and the exhibits hereto constitute the entire agreement.
29. This Agreement and the Information Page may not be amended or modified except by written agreement signed by both of the parties hereto. This provision does not apply to the Program Terms which may be amended by GSAN, as provided in this Agreement.
30. If one or more provisions of this Agreement are held to be unenforceable under applicable laws, such provision shall be excluded from this Agreement and the balance of this Agreement shall be interpreted as if such provision were so excluded and shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and
4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

In the cases below, the following person must give Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the entity;
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the trust; and
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details),
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Also see Special rules for partnerships, earlier.

What is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all United States account holders that are specified United States persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account; for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) written or printed on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, write NEW at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/Businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or SS-4 mailed to you within 10 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983.

You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions.

You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions.

You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Visit www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.
